Lactation Management
Course Independent
Study Module 2011

This module provides an in-depth study of skills and knowledge needed for evidence-based professional lactation consultant practice. The module will help prepare candidates for the certification examination sponsored by the International Board of Lactation Consultant Examiners (IBLCE).

Choose from >60 different exercises that span many disciplines. Many exercises can be completed from home. Test yourself on one of the practice exams from Comprehensive Lactation Exam Review.

The Module is offered as a complete unit. CERPs will be awarded when the entire module is submitted.
